

International

Burkina Faso

Formerly called the Republic of Upper Volta, the country was renamed "Burkina Faso" in 1984

The capital is Ouagadougou

An estimated 70 languages are spoken. The Mossi language (Mossi: Mòoré) is spoken by about 40% of the population. French is the official language.

The Fédération Burkinabé du Scoutisme, the national Scouting federation was founded in 1943, and became a member of the World Organization of the Scout Movement in 1972 under the name of Upper Volta

